IN LOVING MEMORY

Ah, thou rose, sweet rose!
Thy beauty, love, and devotion unsurpass'd,
We are lonely with cherished mem'ries of thee.
Thy soft wifely touch is miss'd;
Thy gentle chide to thy child is gone;
But we have glorious hope of thee
In Christ Jesus, the Hope of Glory.

Thy pearl-like beauty was always here,
But gained radiance as the shadows lengthened.
When darkness o'erwhelmed thee,
Thy fragrance spread through our "world."
Then, sweet rose, thou wast plucked from our garden
To live forever with the Rose of Sharon.

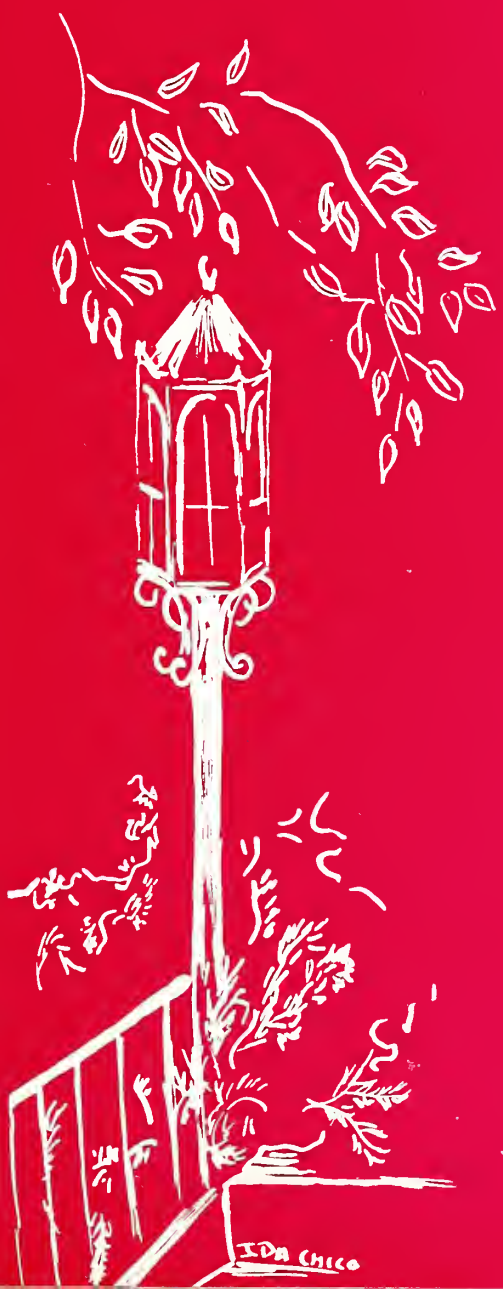
FOREWORD . . . .

VINDAGUA means "looking through a glass darkly"—fading memories, happy pastimes that can never be recalled with the same distinctness and clarity, unless a shutter is snapped and a word is written.

A page is planned and printed, capturing each memory forever, and is piled on top of other memories—never really forgotten, never truly remembered. When a book is opened an older world tugs at the heart—but the book will be closed again.

LEE COLLEGE AND ACADEMY



IN THESE PAGES our "speeial" world is reealled through the "lamps of knowledge," the "frames of events," the "panes of South Tower," the "binoeulars of aetion," the "erystal of activities," the "mirror of perfeetion," and the "pieture of study." Our lives, the many shades and faeets of aetivity and personality, are held steadfast and eonstant in the Almighty. "For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then faee to faee," I Corinthians 13:12.

DEDICATION

"And to love life through labour is to be intimate with life's inmost secret."

—The Prophet
Kahlil Gibran

To one who stands with fervent loyalty and devotion to Lee College and her students . . .

To one who lives with continued joy that comes only from a life embedded in Christ . . .

To one who serves with all that is within him, humbly and faithfully . . .

To one who loves us all, completely and devotedly . . . we affectionately dedicate the 1962 VINDAGUA to our own BROTHER CHARLES GRAHAM.

CHARLES GRAHAM

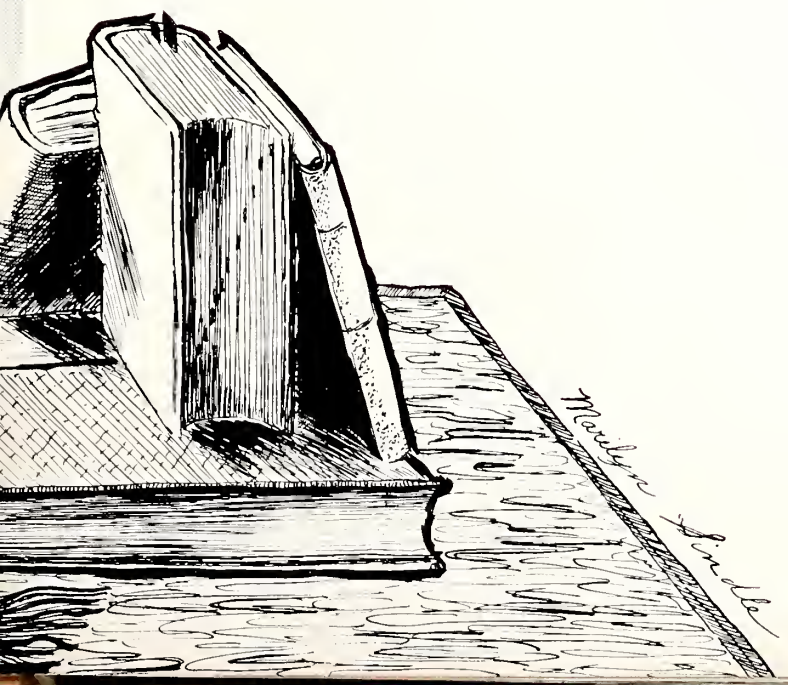
always abounding
in the work of the Lord,"
1 Corinthians 15:58.

Administration



"Advancement" Is Key Word of Lee College Board of Directors.

In view of the crowded conditions of the 1961-62 term, the Board of Directors is speciolizing in "proctical" improvements for Lee College. Alreody the upperclassmen of Simmons and Nora Chombers Holls hove received new furniture, and several buildings on campus hove undergone a "foce-lifting." Yearly improvements on functional buildings are on the agenda, to be followed through when funds allow.

Plans of the Boord for 1962-63 include the renovation of the East wing of Old Moin, ond the remodeling of the central part of Old Main after the 1962 Generol Assembly of the Churches of God.

Lee has room to expand! We, the Student Body, appreciote the efforts of the Board of Directors to make Lee College a progressive college with on "eye" toward the future.

The Reverend Ray H. Hughes

President Hughes

"I believe Lee College will outgraw its facilities soon, ond make an even greater impact upan the church than it hos in the post. The reasan for my belief is the acceleroted interest in education ond the whaleheorted cooperotian that Lee is receiving from the Church," declores the president, the Reverend Ray H. Hughes.

The Reverend Mr. Hughes is esteemed os an eminent minister in the Pentecostal mavement, and is the speaker for "Forword in Foith," the radio voice of the Churches af God. He hos preached 1,200 radia sermons and hos traveled ta 45 foreign cauntries to minister the Word. He is a noted outhar with a rich background af experience.

President Hughes stoted that fram all indicatians, this yeor's student body is one of the finest, both academicolly and spiritually. When asked whether he had any goals set far Lee, he replied, "Yes. Some of them o e as fallaws: A faur-yeor teocher's program, o full-time public relatians director, and a building prcgram to restore Old Main."

1961 Fall Picnic of Beauty, Fun, and Frolics

The annual Fall Picnic is an exciting time for Lee College students, faculty, and administration. The picnic site for the September 29th "holiday" was Lake Ocaee.

Everyone "joined in" the organized relays, games, and events. Of course, all the food was eaten, and the day ended quietly with the inspirational Vesper Service.

Fall Revival, 1961-'62

October 15-21 was set aside as revival time at Lee College. Many accepted definite callings while others received life-changing experiences from God.

The Touring and Campus Choirs led students in the worship of singing.

Lee College was delighted with the lovely devotional singing of the Crusaders from London, England, under the "jolly" direction of the Reverend Mr. Gray.

Diversity leads at Lee! From the very first word, Welcome, one starts a round of activity that lasts from classes to the dorm and from the canteen to the local "Y."

Lee life is unforgettable—for it is the "little" things from which memories are made.

Whistle while you work!

Campus Choir dedication

Events galare leave no roam for boredam. Between studies and recreation, there is a voriety af stimulonts: forensic debates, saciol porties, talent shows, ond even "beauty contests!" The Notivity scene canstructed by the Student Council graces the front campus during the Christmas season. Worship thraugh music is onnually solemnified by the impressive dedication of Campus Choir.

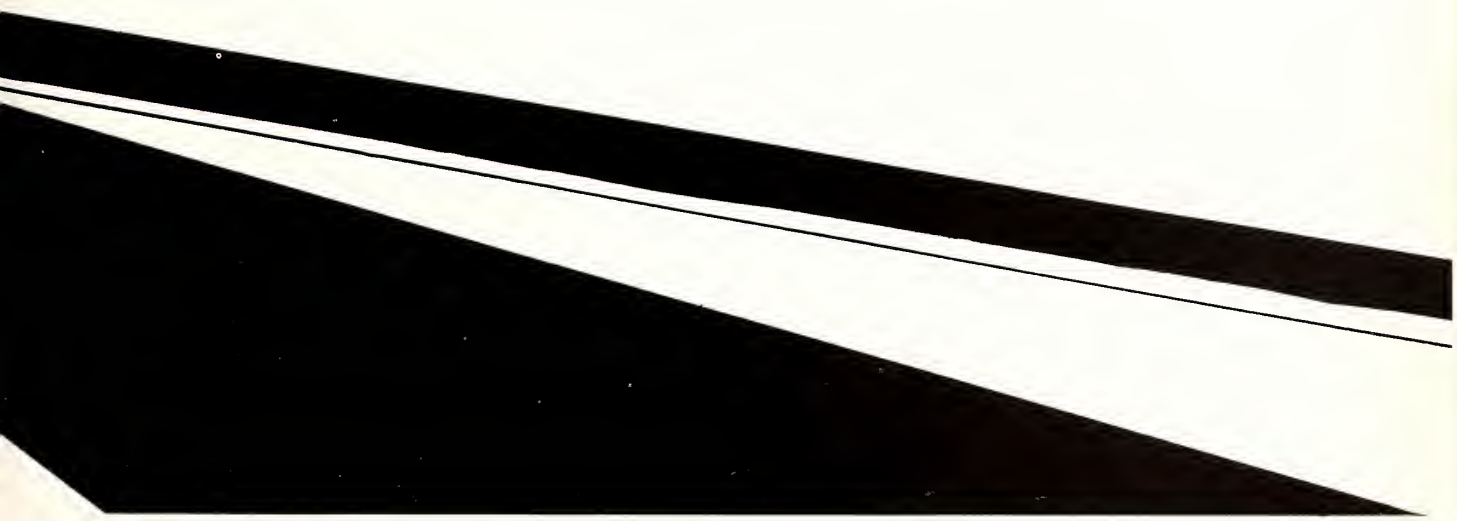
Clubs



BETA

Since 1947 the Lee Academy Beta Club has been recognized as a part of the national Beta Club organization for academically superior high school students.

This year under the leadership of Linda Butler, secretary; Genie Ard, vice-president; Wanda Thompson, president; and Helen Miller, Treasurer, the Beta Club reframed Lee College's former presidents' pictures hanging in the lobby of the president's office. Mr. Stanley Butler, Principal of the Academy is sponsor of the society.

PHI THETA KAPPA

Phi Theta Kappa is the Junior College honor society for deserving students who excel scholastically in their studies. Students are chosen from the teacher-training, commerce, and liberal arts divisions of the Junior College.

Officers of this honorary club are: Tom Baldwin, president; Mary Stone, secretary; P. D. Wesson, vice-president. The Reverend J. Herbert Walker, Jr., Dean of the Junior College, is the sponsor of the society.

PI DELTA OMICRON

The Bible College honor society at Lee was organized on March 16, 1961, and is known by the Greek letters Pi Delta Omicron. To be a member of the society, one must be in the upper ten per cent of his class and have the approval of the faculty and members of the society.

Officers are: Lynn Stone, vice-president; the Reverend R. Hollis Gause, Jr., Dean of the Bible College, sponsor; Ruby Hewett, secretary-treasurer; Philip Morris, president.

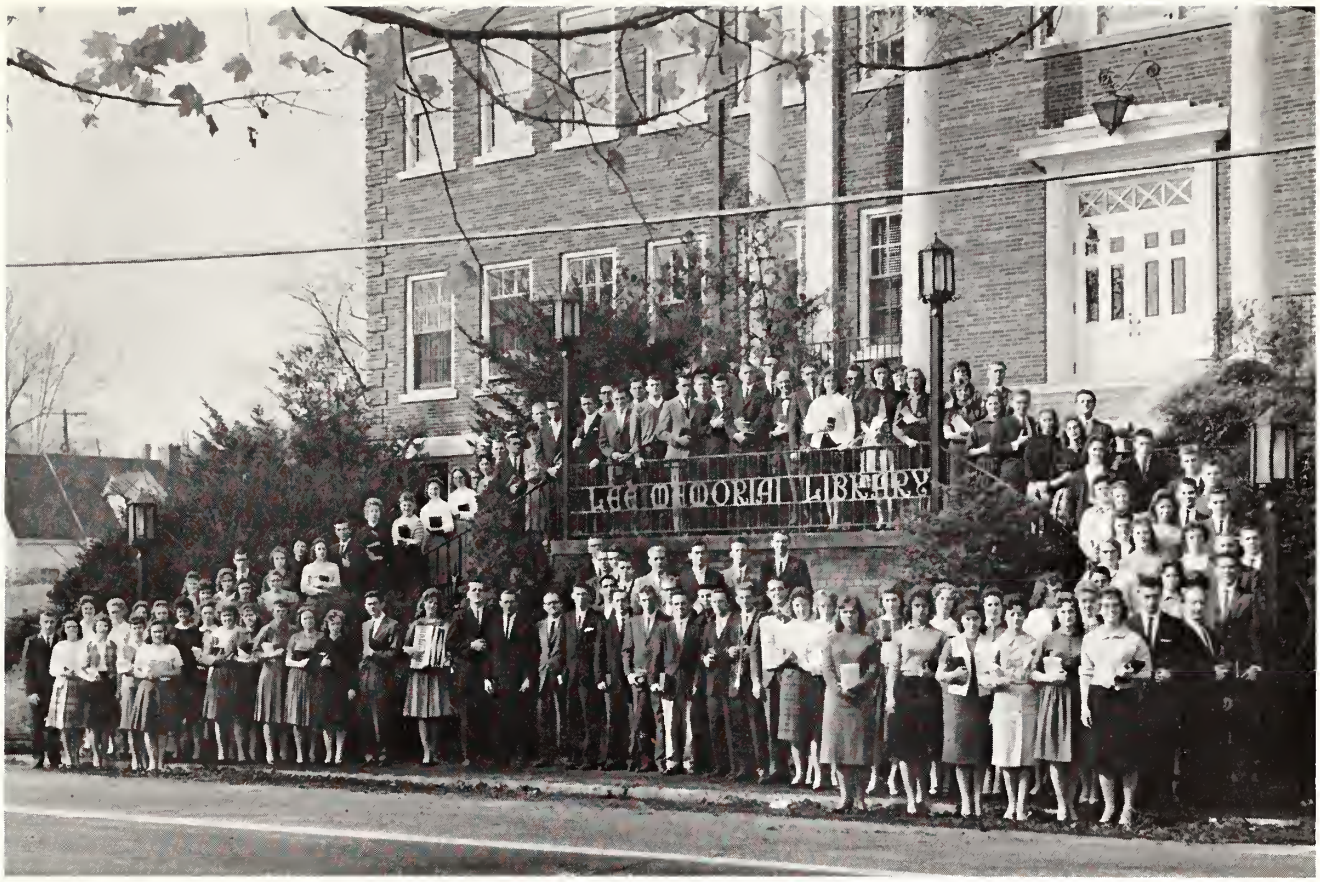
It is the purpose of the club to provide recognition of scholarship and to be a scholastic fellowship of Bible College honor students. The Greek letters Pi Delta Omicron represent: "teacher, pastor, steward."



PIONEERS FOR CHRIST

The Pioneers for Christ have set the pace for New Testament evangelism in the Church of God.

Mary Holdman, secretary; Bob Blackaby, first vice-president; Miss Peggy Humphrey, sponsor; Aubrey Maye, president; Mr. Charles Beach, sponsor; Gerald Johnson, second vice-president; and Karen Lilly, treasurer; examine an invasion schedule.

Activities include weekly jail services, street meetings, child evangelism classes, old folks' home services, and special emphasis on house-to-house witnessing.

MISSIONS

The Missions Club offers an inspiring program for all students who have a sincere burden for the unreached masses of the heathen. Members include those who are prospective missionaries, foreign students, and those interested in missions.

Anointed singing, inspiring testimonies, and stimulating messages by missionaries on furlough are features of the weekly prayer services.

Sharing the burden for foreign fields and leading the club in its activities are: Carlos Diaz, vice-president; Joyce Williams, secretary-treasurer; Phil Shearer, president; Mrs. Avis Swiger, sponsor, M. I. Joseph, chaplain.

MINISTERIAL

Devoted to the ministry of God's Word, many of the youthful preachers and ministers in training at Lee College find an expression of their mutual interests in the Ministerial Club. All student ministers who participate in the Ministerial Club enjoy the fellowship and opportunity of service which the club offers.

The leaders of the club are: Ray McMullen, president; the Reverend Terrell McBrayer, sponsor; Aaron Lavender, secretary; Claude Thompson, treasurer; Dean McKinney, vice-president.

MUSIC

The Music Club is composed of highly talented musicians on Lee campus, many of whom are enrolled in the School of Music. Though not limited to music students, the club members exhibit interest in both instrumental and vocal talent and are frequent participants in chapel services and music recitals.

Officers are: Brian Johnson, president; Bonnie Lambert, secretary-treasurer; Donnie Sumner, vice-president; Mr. A. T. Humphries, Dean of the School of Music, is sponsor of the Music Club.

HOME ECONOMICS

The Home Economics Club is dedicated to instruction in skills of family living. Girls learn the basic requirements for good home making and the latest child care techniques, which they practice on "borrowed" babies.

The fully equipped kitchens and the spacious, beautifully furnished dining room of the Home Economics Department are located on the ground floor of Nora Chambers Hall, and provide a setting for club meetings.

BOYS' ATHLETICS

The Boys' Athletics Club seeks to provide a program of physieal training and recreation for boys on Lee campus.

One of the main aetivities of the club is the sponsoring of the annual Home-eoming Queen election.

Offieers of the elub are as follows:

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

The Girls' Athletics Club under the supervision of Miss Roxie Carr, affords an opportunity for physical training and intramural sports events for the girls of Lee College.

Comparing softball techniques are: Judy Painter, president; Mary Core, secretary-treasurer; Doris Dennison, vice-president; Miss Carr, sponsor.

STUDENT NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

The Student National Edueation Assoeiation was organizcd three years ago as a college chapter of the National Education Association. tion.

Designed to promotc interest in the teaching profcssion, thc S.N.E.A. is a worthy contributor to Lee life on campus.

This club, composcd of students who are prospective educators, offers a scholarship to a worthy member studying for the teaching profession.

FORENSIC

The Lee College Forensic Club endeavors to give well-rounded entertainment to the student body and to demonstrate student skills in public speaking and acting.

Leaders of the club are: Garland Stout, president; Betty Robbins, secretary-treasurer; Buddy Pyeatt, vice-president; and the Reverend Charles Carpenter, sponsor.

This year the Forensic Club sponsored numerous debates, speech contests, and a comedy play for the enjoyment of the students and the general public.

MINISTERS' WIVES

Much of the credit given to the successful minister is actually due to the prayers and backing of his companion.

In this club, the wives of the student ministers join in sharing the joys and problems they face. Though many of them hold full-time employment, occasionally they find time for an afternoon of relaxation together. Pictured are Clariee Weaver, viee-president; Mrs. James Cross, co-sponsor; Joyee McKinney, president; Mrs. Charles Conn, eo-sponsor; Voneiel Smith, seeretary-treasurer.

FACULTY AND STAFF

The Faculty and Staff Club is an organization consisting of all employees, officials and instructors of Lee College. The main purpose of the Club is to provide added fellowship among its members.

The officers are: Mrs. Carolyn Palmertree, secretary-treasurer; Honette Eehols, vice-president; Mrs. Ray H. Hughes, president.

High School Seniors

Honette Echols, sponsor

The purpose of the Academy is twofold: First, it is to offer bays ond girls three years of high schaal training in o Christian enviranment. There is the added odvontage of a clase assaciatian with college students which serves as an inspiring influence. Second, it is to give on oppartunity to mature students who have nat had the odvantoge of a high school education. These students appreciate the opportunity of completing their high school educatian where there ore others of their own oge ond teochers wha understand their problems.

Lee College Alma Mater

In the heart of dear old Cleveland
Reared against the sky,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years go by.
Praise to thee, our Alma Mater,
Molder of mankind.
Greater glory, love unending,
Be forever thine!

Balmy breezes gently wafted
Through inspiring halls;
Mem'ries' leaflets, closely twining,
Shall fore'er recall.
Yesterdays that waken in our Hearts a tender glow,
Making greater still the love
That we have learned to know.

Ever onward! be our watchword;
Faithful soldiers, we
Owe a life of loyal service
To our dear L. C.
Praise to thee, our Alma Mater,
Molder of mankind.
Greater glory, love unending,
Be forever thine.

CHURCH OF GOD

WORLD MISSIONS

From the heart of God to the heart of the church, the one great theme is missions. We are proud to salute a graduating class composed of many mission-hearted young people! You are now our church. Our future patterns will be built upon you!

Be sure that you keep the needs of the world consistently before you, and that you let God bless the world through you. Only then can we hope for our future church to be world-wide in its scope. We trust you with this heart beat!
